

WASHINGTON, D. C., SUNDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1912.

Society

THE OPEN season for engagements is at hand, and already Washington society has been interested in the announcements of a number of romances which have recently been brought to happy conclusions. Of particular interest is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Harriet Addison Bayne, daughter of the late Dr. John W. Bayne and Mrs. Bayne, to Lieut. Guy Wilkinson Stuart Castle, U. S. N. The announcement of the engagement was made last night by Mrs. John W. Bayne, mother of the bride-to-be. The wedding will take place the latter part of November. Miss Bayne is one of the most attractive of the debutantes of recent years and has a wide circle of acquaintances in Washington. Her brother, Dr. J. Breckinridge Bayne, was married less than a year ago to Miss Olga Roosevelt. Dr. and Mrs. Bayne returned to Washington from Newport, R. I., last evening and will be the guests of Mrs. John W. Bayne, at her home in N. Street. They are building a house here, but it will not be completed for some time. Another engagement in which New York, as well as Washington, is interested, and announced during the last week, was that of Miss Carolyn Murray, daughter of Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Arthur Murray, to Mr. Ord Peston, of New York and Washington. They are to be married at Fort Mason, Cal., in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Henry Vandergrift have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice Vandergrift, to Mr. George Angus Garnett, of Chicago. Still a fourth announcement of the week is that of the engagement of Miss Lucy Gunn Birnie, daughter of Col. Rogers Birnie, U. S. A., and Mrs. Birnie, to Mr. Henry Vincent Horan, of New York City. Col. Birnie has been ordered to Washington to be chief of ordnance during the absence of Gen. Conner. Miss Birnie made her home in Washington for a number of years, though recently she has been living in New York.

The President and Mrs. Taft, accompanied by Miss Mabel Boardman, are on an automobile tour through the Berkshires, Vermont, and New Hampshire this week. They will return to the summer White House in Beverly, Mass., from Dublin, N. H., on Friday, after paying a visit to Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Franklin MacVeagh. The same evening the President and Mrs. Taft and Miss Boardman will board the Mayflower and leave for Woods Hole to spend Saturday with Mr. W. Cameron Forbes, Governor General of the Philippines, and Sunday with Senator and Mrs. Murray Crane, at Dalton. They will return again to Beverly on Wednesday, and the President will spend much of the following ten days golfing and motoring before leaving for Hot Springs, Va.

Miss Catherine N. Cameron is to be married to Mr. Judah H. Sears, of Boston, October 24, at Rosebank, S. I., for many years the home of her father, the late Sir Roderick Cameron. For the last five years Miss Cameron and her sister, Miss Margaret Cameron, have made their home in Washington during the season. The improvement in the health of Mrs. Belmont Tiffany, sister of Miss Cameron, is so satisfactory that the wedding date has now been set. The engagement was announced about two weeks ago. Mr. Sears is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Zenna Sears of Boston.

Mr. Robert Hollister Chapman, superintendent of Glacier Park, Mont., and Mrs. Chapman, will go to Yosemite National Park to attend the convention of the national park superintendents, which opens on October 14. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman are well known in Washington society, having made their home here for the last two winters.

Representative and Mrs. Andrew Peters, of Massachusetts, have leased the house at 1021 Twenty-first Street Northwest, the home of Mrs. George W. McLanahan, and will occupy it during the coming season. Mr. and Mrs. Peters are expected here before December 1. Mrs. Peters was formerly Miss Martha R. Phillips.

Miss Stella Curtis is to be married to Mr. William N. Taft Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Miss Curtis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Curtis. She will be attended by her sister, Miss Alice Curtis, and her bridesmaids will be Miss Lucinda Pennebaker, Miss Buford Brice, and Miss Ruth Jones. The flower girls will be Miss Helen Curtis, Miss Lillian Reister, and Miss Lillian Thurston. Mr. Taft's best man is to be Mr. James Philip Clifford, of Clarksville, W. Va.

Mrs. Joseph M. Dixon, wife of Senator Dixon of Montana, has recently been elected to the board of lady managers of the Potomac School for Boys and Girls, which is to open on Wednesday. The other five members of the board are Mrs. Henry M. Ward, Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mrs. Montgomery Blair, Mrs. Monroe Hopkins, and Mrs. George X. McLanahan. The school is located at Connecticut Avenue and Eighteenth Street Northwest, and was started ten years ago by Mrs. Fairfax Harrison and Mrs. Ward Thoren. It is for children in the kindergarten and for boys and girls up to twelve and thirteen years of age. Many of the future belles and beaux of Washington are receiving their early education there. Miss Kate Eley is the principal of the school.

Mrs. Stilson Hutchins will close her house on Gibbs Avenue, Newport, R. I., October 15 and go for a two weeks' stay at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York. She will return to Washington the first week in November.

Mrs. Henry W. Fitch and her daughter, Mrs. Alexandrine Fitch and Miss Henrietta Fitch, have returned to Washington, and will spend the winter here, at their apartment in the Parkwood.

Cable dispatches received here yesterday announced the birth of a boy to Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel O'Reilly, in Manila, P. I. Mrs. O'Reilly was formerly Miss Carmel Egan, and is the daughter of the American Minister to Denmark and Mrs. Egan.

Miss Mary E. McConney has returned to Washington for the winter and has taken an apartment in the Bellevue Hotel, in McPherson Square.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell S. Smith were the hosts at a reception given in their home in Sixteenth Street Northwest last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Walters, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Walters is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith. She and Mr. Walters were married recently, and their friends took this occasion to make them many handsome presents. The reception fell also on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who were married in the Metropolitan M. E. Church, in this city, in 1887. They received the hearty congratulations of their guests upon the silver anniversary.

The wedding of Miss Isabel Weedon Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Chapman, to Lieut. Lawrence Watts, United States Army, took place last night at 4:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, on Estate Place, Baltimore, the bride's uncle, Rev. James H. Blake, of Christ Episcopal Church, Georgetown, D. C., officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory crepe, almost entirely covered with Brussels lace, the drapery being caught with clusters of orange blossoms and the tulle veil with a Brussels lace cap, held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride's roses, and the only ornament she wore was a rope of pearls, a present from the bridegroom.

The maid of honor, Miss Charlton Mackrick, wore soft white satin veiled in chiffon, the drapery being caught with pearl ornaments, and she carried a gold basket filled with Aaron Ward roses. The best man was Lieut. Edward Roth, Jr., U. S. A., and the ushers Mr. R. Bayly Chapman, a brother of the bride, and Mr. Henry P. Hyson, Jr.

A small reception followed the ceremony, and the decorations in the dining-room were red, in compliment to the colors of the Coast Artillery, to which branch of the service the bridegroom belongs. A pretty incident of the wedding was the cutting of the cake by the bride.

San Francisco Day was celebrated at the headquarters of the Southern Industrial Educational Association on Friday morning, when Mrs. Glew received a delegation of her friends from the Coast, including Mr. and Mrs. Richard Queen, Miss Nora Queen, and Miss Louise Queen, a charming young debutante of the Golden Gate city. Mr. Queen's sister, Miss Nora Queen, is the corresponding secretary of the California Auxiliary of the Southern Industrial Educational Association. Mrs. Glew and Mrs. Stone are "at home" daily in the headquarters of the association.

A very pretty wedding was that of Miss Myrtle Isabelle Selner and Mr. Audrey Ryan Padgett, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Selner, in Congress Heights, Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. The ceremony being performed by Rev. C. Cooker, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church. The attendants were Miss Wauwatt Padgett and Mr. John Selner. The bride was attired in blue satin and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Padgett wore a dainty dress of pink silk. Mr. and Mrs. Padgett will reside on their farm, in Camp Springs, Colorado. On their return they will make their home at Fort Strong, Boston, Mass., where Lieut. Watts is stationed.

Mr. Richard T. Wilson gave a dinner and theater party on Friday night in New York for Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt. Among the sixteen guests invited were Mr. and Mrs. William P. Thompson, Mrs. J. Gordon Douglas, Miss Susan Fish Dresser, and Messrs. Preston Gibson, Henri de Bach, A. C. Horstmann, S. N. retired, and Mr. Stuart Gilmore. Mr. John Brewer and Miss Brewer, Gen. H. B. Price, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Price, and Mrs. Clem Hebb and Miss Hebb, all of Washington; Mrs. George Phillips and Miss Phillips, of West Chester, Pa.; Dr. E. A. Westwood, of Clarksville, W. Va.; Mr. L. F. Pendleton, of Cumberland, Md.; and Lieut. and Mrs. John Rowe, of Fort Monroe, the latter a sister of the bride.

The Commandant of the Marine Barracks and Mrs. William P. Riddle have had as their guest for a short time Mrs. Riddle's daughter, Mrs. Walter B. Izard.

Dr. and Mrs. Tom Williams have left their former residence, 178 K Street, and are now occupying their new home, at 176 N. Street.

Mr. Edmund K. Webster and her daughter, Miss Frances Webster, who have been abroad for the summer, have returned to this city. They expect to go to New York this week to witness the review of the fleet.

Mrs. S. W. Gans, of the Elberon, celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday yesterday in the midst of her entire family, at home from 7 to 10 o'clock.

Mrs. S. Funkenstein, of Mobile, Ala., who has been visiting her daughter in New York for the past two months, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Schiffman during the week.

Miss Gladys Mayer left on Friday for Baltimore, where she will be the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayer.

Miss Ruth Bliss is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hill, who are entertaining a house party over the week-end at their country place, in Marlborough, Md.

Mrs. Howry, wife of Judge Charles B. Howry, and her daughter, Miss Mary Howry, have returned to Washington from the White Sulphur Springs and Blue Ridge Summit, Pa., where they spent the summer. Judge Howry, who is still in Europe, will join his family at their I Street residence the latter part of this month.

MME. EKENGREN,
The popular wife of the Minister from Sweden, will return to Washington this week.

with her husband's sword. Later in the evening Lieut. and Mrs. Watts left on their wedding journey, which will extend as far as the Grand Canyon of Colorado. On their return they will make their home at Fort Strong, Boston, Mass., where Lieut. Watts is stationed.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Col. Charles H. Watts, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Watts, the parents of the bridegroom; his uncle and cousin, Commodore James Gilmore, U. S. N., retired, and Mr. Stuart Gilmore; Mr. John Brewer and Miss Brewer, Gen. H. B. Price, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Price, and Mrs. Clem Hebb and Miss Hebb, all of Washington; Mrs. George Phillips and Miss Phillips, of West Chester, Pa.; Dr. E. A. Westwood, of Clarksville, W. Va.; Mr. L. F. Pendleton, of Cumberland, Md.; and Lieut. and Mrs. John Rowe, of Fort Monroe, the latter a sister of the bride.

The Commandant of the Marine Barracks and Mrs. William P. Riddle have had as their guest for a short time Mrs. Riddle's daughter, Mrs. Walter B. Izard.

Dr. and Mrs. Tom Williams have left their former residence, 178 K Street, and are now occupying their new home, at 176 N. Street.

Mr. Edmund K. Webster and her daughter, Miss Frances Webster, who have been abroad for the summer, have returned to this city. They expect to go to New York this week to witness the review of the fleet.

Mrs. S. W. Gans, of the Elberon, celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday yesterday in the midst of her entire family, at home from 7 to 10 o'clock.

Mrs. S. Funkenstein, of Mobile, Ala., who has been visiting her daughter in New York for the past two months, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Schiffman during the week.

Miss Gladys Mayer left on Friday for Baltimore, where she will be the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayer.

Miss Ruth Bliss is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hill, who are entertaining a house party over the week-end at their country place, in Marlborough, Md.

Mrs. Howry, wife of Judge Charles B. Howry, and her daughter, Miss Mary Howry, have returned to Washington from the White Sulphur Springs and Blue Ridge Summit, Pa., where they spent the summer. Judge Howry, who is still in Europe, will join his family at their I Street residence the latter part of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Richard and family have returned to Washington from Atlantic City, where they spent the summer months.

Mrs. Herbert Rich, who has been spending a few days in Baltimore, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Fantl, of Savannah, Ga., are spending some time in Washington, after a stay of three months in Atlantic City.

The former American Ambassador to France and Mrs. Bacon have leased Secretary of the Navy George von L. Meyer's residence on Beacon Hill, Boston, for the coming winter. Their son, Mr. Elliott Bacon, was a student at the Harvard Law School.

were the guests of honor at a dinner on Friday night given by Commander George W. Williams, U. S. N., and Mrs. Williams at the torpedo station at Newport, R. I.

Cards have been received in Washington announcing the marriage of Miss Renee Tolson, niece of Mrs. Annetta Haabrock, to Dr. William T. Davis, Medical Corps, U. S. A., at Dorothea Church, in Vienna, Austria, on Saturday, September 23. Dr. and Mrs. Davis will live in Washington at 127 Sixteenth Street Northwest, and will be "at home" on the second and fourth Wednesdays after December 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sigmund and daughter, Miss Audrey, have left the city for Boston, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Gertrude Gottschalk, of Baltimore, is spending some time in the city with relatives.

Mrs. Mary Kaufman and Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Strause, who have spent the summer at Saranac Lake, are back in the city.

Mrs. Charles Kaufman has returned to Washington after a fortnight in Atlantic City.

Miss Rena Gottschalk, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rhett, of Georgetown.

Miss Carrie Abraham, of Norfolk, Va., is spending a few days with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Martin, wife of Lieut. Martin, U. S. M. C., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Stephen Treco, at her residence in N. Street. Mrs. Martin, who was before her marriage Miss Stephen Treco, has spent the summer at Beverly Farms, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Marchand have taken apartments at the Cairo for the winter.

Miss Leune Cohen is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mayer, of the Willard apartment.

Miss Claudia Jackson has left for Syracuse, N. Y., where she will attend the Syracuse University.

Miss Belle Rehnauer, of Cincinnati, has returned to Washington, where she will attend the Chevy Chase Seminary.

Mrs. C. Barnes, who was visiting here for a few days, has returned to her home in Pennsylvania.

Miss Irma Virginia Kane left Washington last week for Fort Andrews, Mass., where she will be the guest of Lieut. and Mrs. J. Ray Cygon until Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Lipman and their son, Master Jack Lipman, of Atlantic City, N. J., will be the guests of Mrs. Lipman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Johnson, 1903 F Street Northwest.

Mrs. Erlanger is the guest of Mr. B. Solomon in Sixteenth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goldenberg are now located in their new home at the Gotham.

The Washington Alliance of Jewish Women will hold its first regular meeting of the season in the vestry room of the Eighth Street Temple on Tuesday, October 8, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. W. E. Andrews will present greetings from the District of Columbia Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mr. Alexander Aaronson will give an address on "The Outlook in Modern Palestine." The musical numbers will be rendered by Mrs. Marie von Unschlicht.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. London, of 1705 West North Avenue, Baltimore, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Beale Block London, to Mr. Joseph George Kolasky, formerly of Boston, but now residing in Washington. They will be at home to their friends on Sunday, October 6.

Miss Anna Elizabeth Johnson and her brother, Mr. Edward Johnson, have visited their Mr. David Roth, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. V. B. Jackson has returned from a trip to Europe, and has opened his apartment at the Brunswick, 1320 I Street.

Mr. George Westinghouse has arrived at Erskine Park, Lenox, Mass., and is celebrating his sixty-sixth birthday today.

A beautiful wedding took place on the night of October 2, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson, 74 U Street Northwest, when their daughter, Miss Mary Loraine Anderson, and Mr. T. Greenwell Herbert, were married. Only the immediate relatives and close friends of the bride and bridegroom witnessed the ceremony, the Rev. E. Marshall Mott officiating. The house was elaborately decorated with palms, ferns, and autumn flowers.

The bride was given away by her father. Her dress was of white crepe, trimmed with duchesse lace and the pearl ornaments. Her tulle veil was fastened with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Augusta Anderson, wore white satin with pearl trimming, and carried Killarney roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Capitola Anderson and Miss Helen Mantz. They wore pink marquette over white satin, and carried pink roses. Mr. Herman Grimes was best man.

After the ceremony, a large reception followed, the guests numbering about 200. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert left for an extended trip in the North, and on their return will reside at the Dumbarton apartment.

"Fairfield," the spacious old home of Maj. Armes, at Chevy Chase, was the scene on Wednesday night of a particularly attractive farewell reception given for Mrs. Maude W. Gardner by her cousin, Mrs. Hugo Loebl. Mrs. Gardner leaves to-morrow for Miles City, Mont., where she intends making her home.

The old house was attractively decorated with La France roses, autumn leaves, palms, cut flowers, and Japanese lanterns. The guests enjoyed dancing and cards, and refreshments were served during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Foster gave a beautifully appointed dinner Wednesday night in celebration of Mr. Foster's forty-first birthday. Covers were set for sixteen.

Col. John H. Beacom, U. S. A., inspector general of the Western division, with headquarters at San Francisco, has arrived in Cleveland, Ohio, for a brief visit with his brother, Judge Madison W. Beacom. Col. Beacom will be at the Union Club.

Maj. James E. Rundle, U. S. A., who has been visiting with his sister, Mrs. Robert Collier, of East Seventy-first Street, Cleveland, Ohio, has gone to Boston, Mass., where he will meet Gen. William Crozier, Chief of Ordnance and president of the Army War College.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Dew, of the Hillside Apartment, entertained ten guests at dinner on Monday last, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Dew's birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Foster gave a beautifully appointed dinner Wednesday night in celebration of Mr. Foster's forty-first birthday. Covers were set for sixteen.

Col. John H. Beacom, U. S. A., inspector general of the Western division, with headquarters at San Francisco, has arrived in Cleveland, Ohio, for a brief visit with his brother, Judge Madison W. Beacom. Col. Beacom will be at the Union Club.

Maj. James E. Rundle, U. S. A., who has been visiting with his sister, Mrs. Robert Collier, of East Seventy-first Street, Cleveland, Ohio, has gone to Boston, Mass., where he will meet Gen. William Crozier, Chief of Ordnance and president of the Army War College.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Dew, of the Hillside Apartment, entertained ten guests at dinner on Monday last, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Dew's birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Foster gave a beautifully appointed dinner Wednesday night in celebration of Mr. Foster's forty-first birthday. Covers were set for sixteen.

Col. John H. Beacom, U. S. A., inspector general of the Western division, with headquarters at San Francisco, has arrived in Cleveland, Ohio, for a brief visit with his brother, Judge Madison W. Beacom. Col. Beacom will be at the Union Club.

Maj. James E. Rundle, U. S. A., who has been visiting with his sister, Mrs. Robert Collier, of East Seventy-first Street, Cleveland, Ohio, has gone to Boston, Mass., where he will meet Gen. William Crozier, Chief of Ordnance and president of the Army War College.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Dew, of the Hillside Apartment, entertained ten guests at dinner on Monday last, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Dew's birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Foster gave a beautifully appointed dinner Wednesday night in celebration of Mr. Foster's forty-first birthday. Covers were set for sixteen.

Col. John H. Beacom, U. S. A., inspector general of the Western division, with headquarters at San Francisco, has arrived in Cleveland, Ohio, for a brief visit with his brother, Judge Madison W. Beacom. Col. Beacom will be at the Union Club.

Maj. James E. Rundle, U. S. A., who has been visiting with his sister, Mrs. Robert Collier, of East Seventy-first Street, Cleveland, Ohio, has gone to Boston, Mass., where he will meet Gen. William Crozier, Chief of Ordnance and president of the Army War College.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Dew, of the Hillside Apartment, entertained ten guests at dinner on Monday last, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Dew's birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Foster gave a beautifully appointed dinner Wednesday night in celebration of Mr. Foster's forty-first birthday. Covers were set for sixteen.

Col. John H. Beacom, U. S. A., inspector general of the Western division, with headquarters at San Francisco, has arrived in Cleveland, Ohio, for a brief visit with his brother, Judge Madison W. Beacom. Col. Beacom will be at the Union Club.

Maj. James E. Rundle, U. S. A., who has been visiting with his sister, Mrs. Robert Collier, of East Seventy-first Street, Cleveland, Ohio, has gone to Boston, Mass., where he will meet Gen. William Crozier, Chief of Ordnance and president of the Army War College.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Dew, of the Hillside Apartment, entertained ten guests at dinner on Monday last, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Dew's birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Foster gave a beautifully appointed dinner Wednesday night in celebration of Mr. Foster's forty-first birthday. Covers were set for sixteen.

Col. John H. Beacom, U. S. A., inspector general of the Western division, with headquarters at San Francisco, has arrived in Cleveland, Ohio, for a brief visit with his brother, Judge Madison W. Beacom. Col. Beacom will be at the Union Club.

Maj. James E. Rundle, U. S. A., who has been visiting with his sister, Mrs. Robert Collier, of East Seventy-first Street, Cleveland, Ohio, has gone to Boston, Mass., where he will meet Gen. William Crozier, Chief of Ordnance and president of the Army War College.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Dew, of the Hillside Apartment, entertained ten guests at dinner on Monday last, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Dew's birth.

Plain Corset Talks
TO WISE WOMEN

(No. 1)
Ten thousand stores in the U. S. sell Nemo Corsets. A few of them advise you to buy some other corset when you ask for a Nemo.

WHY?
Generally it is because that other corset gives the dealer more profit and YOU less VALUE.

It's up to you to protect yourself. Be nice to the dealer, but don't you be the loser—
Be a Wise Woman!

LIMSHAPING
SELF-REDUCING

Every Nemo Serves
A Special Purpose
This model, No. 406, is especially suitable for women who have thick upper limbs.

Bands of elastic Lastikops Webbing prevent that bulge of fat below the corset-skirt—your gown fits snugly and smoothly.

When you sit down, the elastic bands expand; you're comfortable, and your corset doesn't "ride up."

Two models:
No. 406—low bust $4.00
No. 408—medium $4.00

Both have improved Self-Reducing front; very long skirts sizes 20 to 36.

OTHER NEMOS
For Stout Figures
Self-Reducing—with Hip-Confining Bands:
No. 319—low bust $3.00
No. 321—medium $3.00

Auto-Massage Device:
No. 353—low bust $3.50
No. 354—medium $3.50
No. 355—high bust $3.50
New "In-Curve Back"
No. 506—low bust $5.00
No. 508—medium $5.00

Ask for the Nemo, insist upon seeing it, and accept no substitute. In other words—
Be a Wise Woman!

(*) In Good Stores Everywhere
KOPS BROS., Mfrs., New York

Nature Shape Shoes

Style with comfort,
for Men and Women, 4.00, 4.50, 5.00

"Banister" Shoes for Men, 8.00 to 11.00

"Onyx" Hosiery for Men, Women, Boys, and Girls.

Arthur Burt Co., 1343 F

We Give Votes in The Herald's $35,000 Contest.

LAXATIVE
QUININE TABLETS
4
La Grippe,
Hay Fever,
Neuralgia,
Cold in Head
Twenty-four Tablets & Fifteen Cents

BRADLEY'S DRUG STORE.
15th St. and Pennsylvania Ave. S. E.
We Give Votes in The Herald's $35,000 Contest.